ANALYTICAL CONTROL —THE KEYNOTE OF A GREAT ORGANISATION

ENSURING FINEST QUALITY AND GUARANTEED PURITY

IN the comparatively short space of fifty years, the firm of Boots The Chemists has developed from a small drug shop to a great organisation of 900 branches and a huge manufacturing centre of laboratories, warehouses, works and offices, occupying forty acres of land and employing seventeen thousand British people. The name of "Boots The Chemists" has become a household word—a word that stands for purity and reliability.

The progress of this enterprise has been largely due to one vital factor—the principle of analytical control. The firm was one of the earliest pioneers of the wholesale drug trade in the establishment of an analytical laboratory. Since that time, research, bacteriological and pharmacological laboratories have been added. The services of these laboratories are employed by almost every department. No material is used or issued that has not first passed the careful testing and scrutiny of the Analytical Department. The Chief Analyst and his staff act as an efficient safeguard for the interests of the public. Throughout each stage of manufacture—from the raw material to the finished product—scientific research and analytical control ensure for every preparation a definite standard of strength and purity.

Several laboratories are devoted to Chemical Research. Year in and year out, patient systematic investigation continues in an endeavour to make more perfect the various processes used in the production of a whole series of Fine Chemicals, synthetic perfume bases, etc. Special laboratory facilities have recently been added for the manufacture and testing of glandular products, such as Insulin and Pituitary Gland. Boots The Chemists were among the only firms (three in number) to produce Liver Extract so valuable in the treatment of Pernicious Anæmia. The latest machinery and the most up-to-date methods are employed in the manufacture of pills, medicinal gelatine capsules, lozenges, pastilles, etc. An important feature is the production of compressed tablets. Portability, convenience, accuracy of dosage, rapid and thorough disintegration and full therapeutic activity are the essential qualities of the compressed tablets made by Boots. Tablets, pills, etc., are untouched by hand throughout. Under perfect hygienic conditions they are counted, packed in bottles, capped and cartoned by special machinery. Some idea of the vast quantities dealt with may be gathered from the fact that in a single season some fifty million Regesan Bronchial Lozenges are manufactured and sold.

Simple drugs, such as Epsom Salts, Boric Acid, Bicarbonate of Soda, etc., are automatically weighed and packed by machinery and sold by the millions of packets all over the country. Similar hygienic conditions prevail in the manufacture and bottling of such products as Olive Oil, Cod Liver Oil, Regelax (medicinal petroleum), etc.

The special plant for the production of Malt Extract occupies six floors and turns out, in one season, approximately one and a half million jars of Malt Extract and Cod Liver Oil. New plant and machinery have recently been added to Boots Soap manufactory. Two particular lines—Regesan Palm and Olive Oil Soap and Kudos Soap Flakes—have during the past year maintained their well-merited popularity.

The perfumery plant—one of the largest in the country—has a storage capacity of fifteen thousand gallons. Here, at the requisite low temperature, Eaux de Cologne, Lavender Water and other perfumes are stored and matured before being bottled and distributed.

An important part is played by the Transport Department. Goods are expeditiously moved by a fleet of electric or petrol-driven vehicles. Raw material is collected direct from the docks, conveyed through the various manufacturing departments and warehouses and finally, as the finished article, to the branches. The best possible working conditions are provided for the thousands of employees. A well-organised welfare department supervises working conditions and provides facilities, during leisure hours, for sport, hobbies and education.

A day and night Pharmaceutical service has been established at Piccadilly Circus, London, New Street, Birmingham, Wheeler Gate, Nottingham, Oxford Street, Manchester, Shandwick Place, Edinburgh, 9 Ranelagh Place, Liverpool, Boots Corner, Union Street and Argyle Street, Glasgow, and 100a Old Town Street, Plymouth.

The normal scale of prices operates throughout the whole twenty-four hours. This affords yet one more proof of the efficient service to the public provided by Boots The Chemists.

"A Fresh Spring Breeze"

THE exhilaration of the open moorland—the tonic stimulation of the wind across the lea—the fresh breeze fanning the face—bring health and refreshment to the being.

In like manner comes the cooling freshness of White Heather Eau de Cologne in crowded room or quiet boudoir—in sickness or in health—like a fresh spring breeze.
