INTRODUCTION

During the course of producing my book at the Millennium, I was fortunate enough to be able to collect almost 2000 pictures of Woodbury village and Parish life during the 20th Century, and they are still coming in now, 10 years later! Some back as far as 1863. All of these photographs were scanned and saved on a computer disc and the originals returned to their owners.

Around 450 of these were used in the original book, and some have been put up on the Woodbury website. However the others have never been seen by people in general. Some have been used on the cover of the Woodbury News, but I have calculated that it would take 166 years to use them all!

It has always been my wish that all the photographs should be printed, as this is the safest way to preserve them, and as many do not have computer facilities I have decided to try to put together a series of booklets on the various aspects of village/parish life. For example this booklet is about some of the people past and present who have helped to shape Woodbury, and have been part of parish life during the last century and more. We are not the only people who have lived here - there have been others before us! I do not have photographs of everyone of course, and these are just some of those of individuals, which are in the collection, which now totals 2,250. If you or your relatives are not in this book, maybe you will be in the next!

All the booklets will be purely in a documentary form of a picture and a caption. To go into a detailed history of everything would be far too great a task in the time I have left! Detailed histories have already been done. Some of the dates given with the photos are accurate and some are "circa".

Hopefully some memories will be stirred in some of the "locals", and the more recent residents of the village can be "brought up to speed"!

If anyone still has any old 20th century pictures of people or events that have not been scanned and saved, please contact me. They should not be lost.

I am indebted to many unknown photographers who have recorded things over the years. Without all of these people there would be no record of the past to make a booklet now!
