

SOME OF THE PEOPLE WHO HAVE LIVED IN WOODBURY THROUGH THE YEARS

Volume 3

Carol McFadzean demonstrating the art of Lace making at the History Society Exhibition 2006. She was later elected as World President of OIDFA, the International Bobbin and Lace Organisation, between 2006 - 2010

Roger Stokes

2023

This booklet is part of a major collection of historical pictures of Woodbury Parish. It is not an exhaustive list, as many things that have happened have never been photographed or recorded.

-

Other booklets or files contain more pictures, so if what you are looking for is not here, please look in the other booklets or files, as you may find it there.

-

Some pictures may appear more than once on the website, as they might fall into several different categories.

-

At the moment we are trying to get them all categorised, which is a major task, but we are gaining!

-

It is not always realised that the population of any town or village changes totally every 80-100 years, and Woodbury is no different.

People from the past can soon be forgotten, but we must try and remember them!

Website: www.woodburyhistorysociety.co.uk

Mr Gerald House, right, of Venmore Farm, Woodbury, is presented with a Country Landowners' Association plaque and a cheque for £100 awarded for a new building on his farm. The award is made for buildings that are well designed, functional, good value, and blend into the countryside. Presenting the plaque is Mr Michael Sutton-Scott-Tucke chairman of the judges, and looking on are Mr Richard Coates, the designer, and Mr Dav Dommitt, the builder, who both received certificates.

Gerald House from Venmore Farm receiving an award for well designed farm buildings

Class at school c.1960

Harry Jarman

Mrs Jarman

Harry Jarman was a member of the 'Oddfellows' and held various positions within

Harry Jarman was a member of the 'Oddfellows' and held various positions within

'Jester' Norman Bowles at a childrens party 1950's

John Francis Glanvill outside Rydon Farm, ready to go to military camp on the Common c.1905

John Francis Glanvill making a retirement presentation to Rolle Estate agent Mr Foster

John James Glanvill outside Rydon Farm 1900

John Francis Glanvill driving hay rake c.1930

Joan Sellick bringing her geese home from the Pathfields for the night c.1950's

Joan Sellick bringing her geese home from the Pathfields for the night c.1950's

Joan Sellick preparing her food by the only water supply that she had, the pump in the garden up until the 1970's when she had the mains installed

Joan Sellick preparing her food by the only water supply that she had, the pump in the garden up until the 1970's when she had the mains installed

John and June Glanvill in their Young Farmers days ready to sweep up some hay c.1940's

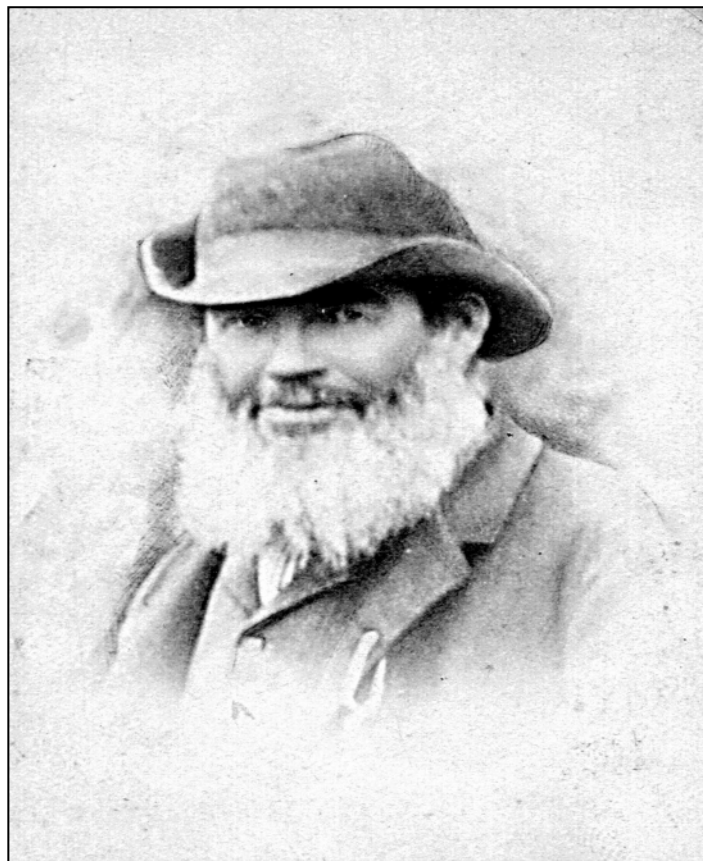

John and June Glanvill as toddlers

John Glanvill as Chairman of Devon County Council

John and Dorothy Glanvill greeting The Queen on her visit to Devon with Lord and Lady Clinton

John Gordon a local carrier 1880

John Stamp 1960

Bertie, John and Anthony Stamp cutting hay c.1950

John Stamp's mother

Miss Johnson from Oakhayes 1888

David Keep 1990

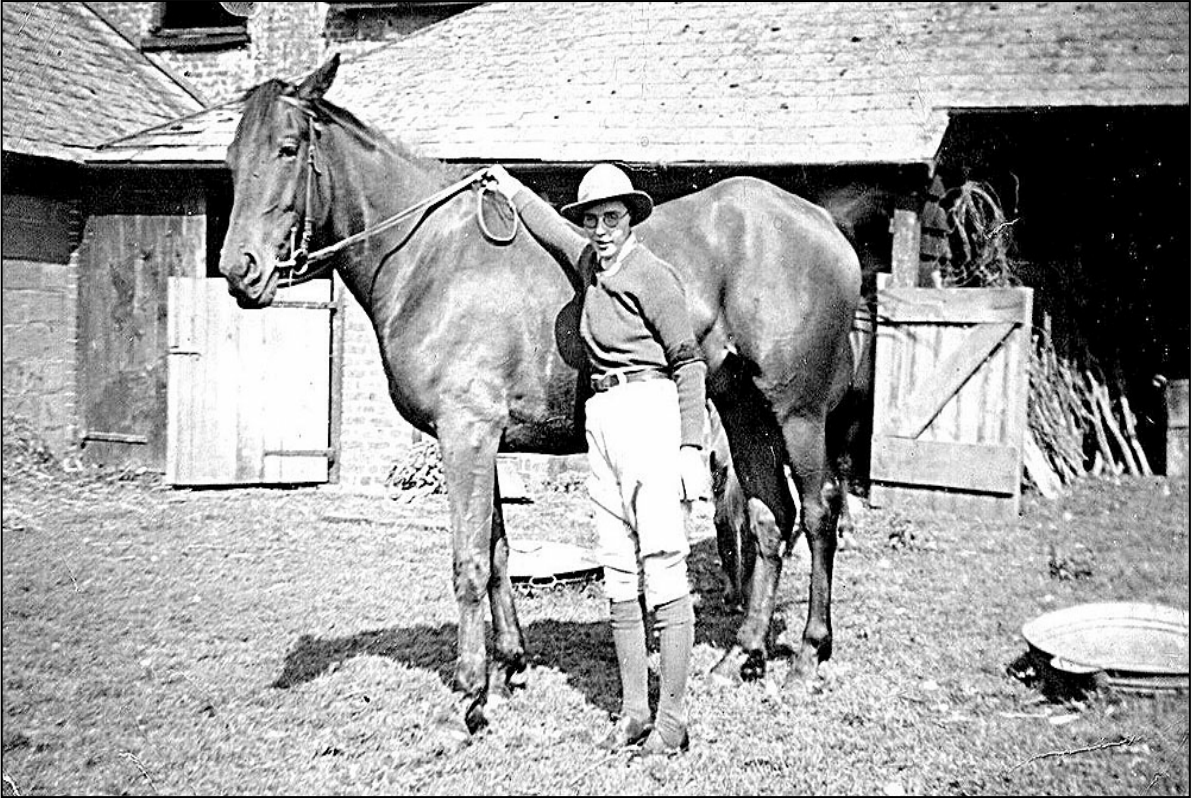

Key handing over ceremony when Dr Douglas took over the Surgery 1986

Elise and Dennis Knight

Kathleen Stokes opening a sale of work at the Community Centre c.1960's

Landgirl Kathleen Champion c.1950's

? Pidsley, landgirl at Webbers Farm with dogs

Peter Payne and Dr Lawn on a cycle trip across Cuba

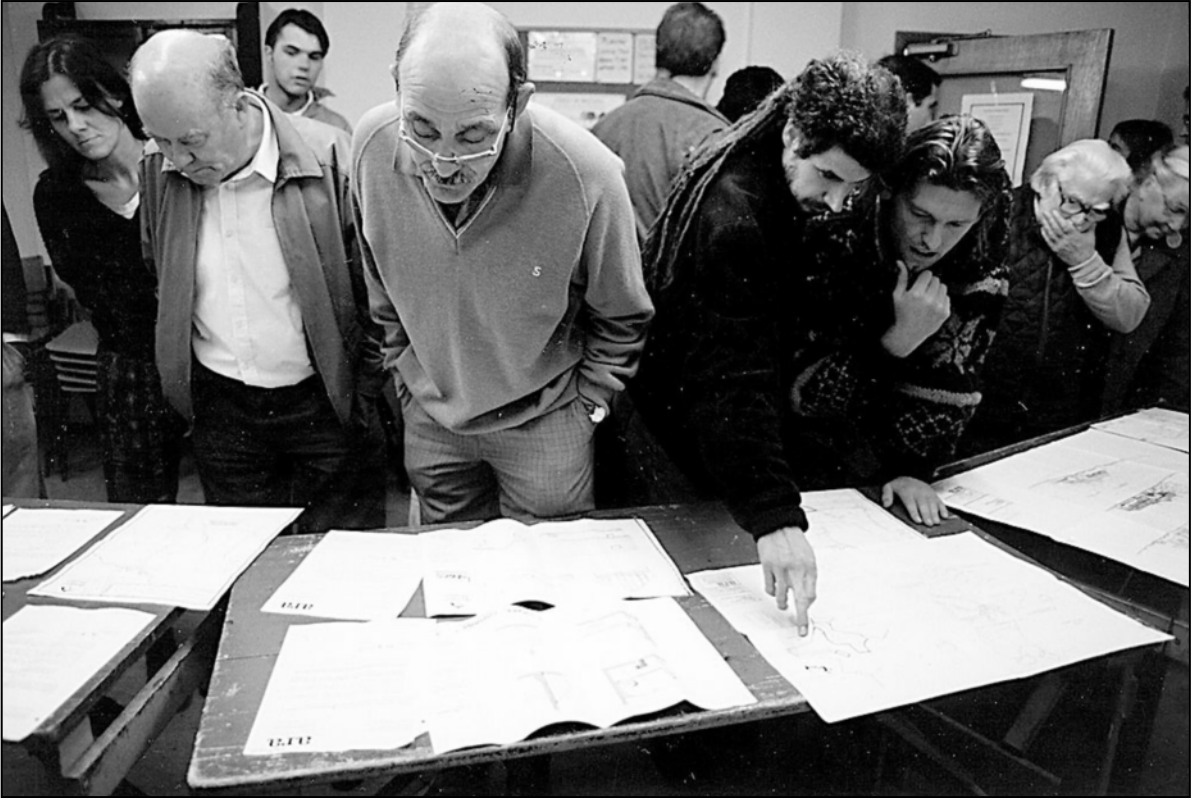

Peter Payne and Dr Lawn on a cycle trip across Cuba

Len and Peggy Westaway from Woodbury Salterton c.2004

Lord Clinton opening the new signboards on the Common 1992

Mansell plans for golf club meeting 1994

Margaret Ford on carnival tableau c.1950

A Marks family get together

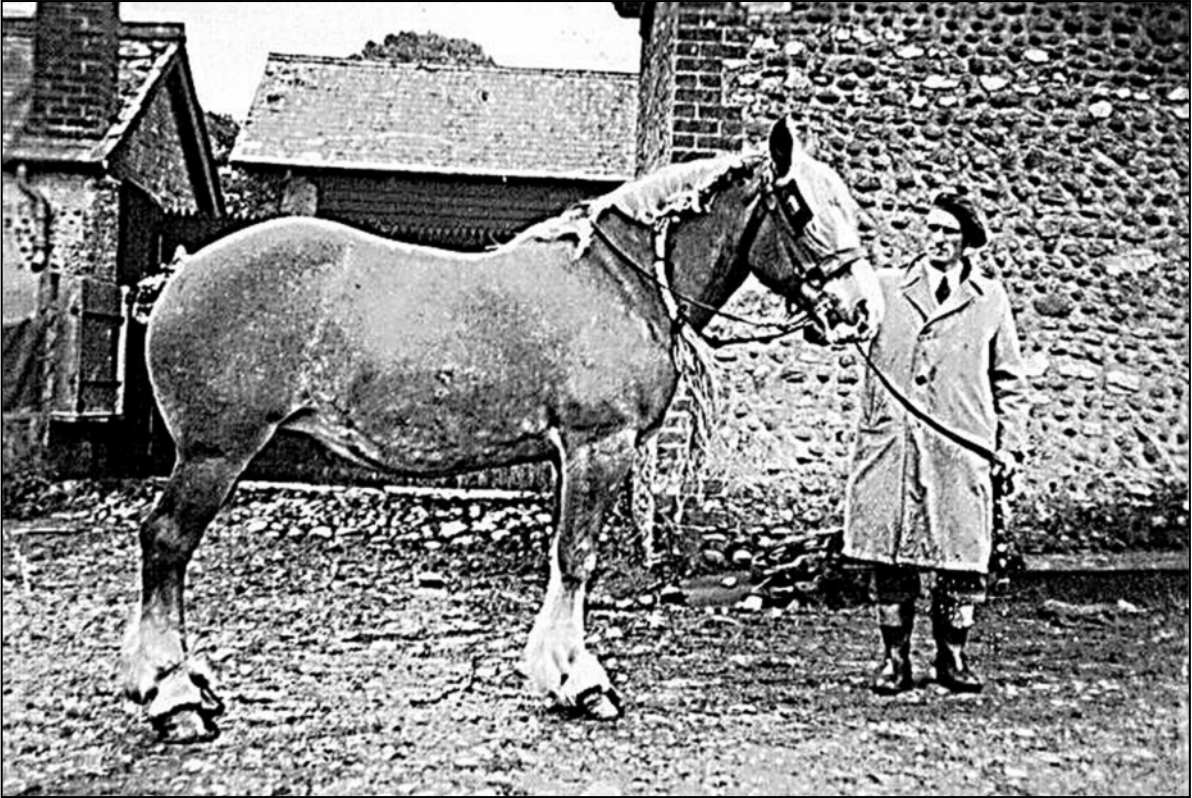

Harry Stokes had a swallows nest in a Webbers Farm milking bail c.1950

Bob Miller and his Guinness Book of Records largest grown Shallots

His immaculate vegetable garden

Harry Miller and 'Blossom' at Mallocks

Mr Pine the schoolmaster 1912

Mr Turner a schoolmaster at Woodbury Salterton school

Mrs Fayter

Mrs Leach who lived in the wooden cabin in Bonds Lane

Mrs Leach who lived in the wooden cabin in Bonds Lane

Mrs Templer with dog 1981

Mystery picture (unknown)

Discussing new lake at Golf Course

Just what the doctors ordered!

CRE 6.5.18.6

AT LAST! Dr Guy Squires, centre, who started to search for a site for a new doctors' surgery at Woodbury 20 years ago, is handed the keys to the surgery by Mr Terry Knapp, managing director of Exeter building contractors Knapp and Son. Also receiving the keys is Dr Squires' partner, Dr Angela Douglas.

The surgery is near the recently completed estate of new houses in Fulford Way. It cost £100,000 and the facilities include a dispensary, which enables patients to see a doctor and obtain a prescription in one visit.

The work started in September and was completed ahead of schedule. Architects were Arthur Rawson Associates of Exmouth, and the quantity surveyors were Randall, Vining and Saunders of Exeter.

New Surgery opening 1986

Family peacock goes, too, as Norman Bowles ends life on the farm

By Jenny Griffiths

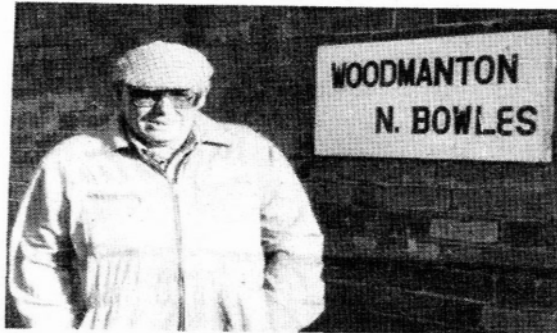

A LIFE down on the farm comes to an end this week for Woodbury's Norman Bowles.

Mr Bowles is leaving Woodmanton Farm, Woodbury, after 64 years. He moved there from Exeter when he was just two years old.

Farm equipment and livestock were sold last week — even the family peacock.

He and his wife Patricia, who was born in Woodbury, have been tenant farmers of Clinton Devon Estates and are looking forward to their retirement — not far away in East Budleigh.

The long unsociable hours associated with farming have not stopped Mr Bowles from taking an active role in the local community.

He stood down from Woodbury Parish Council about six years ago, having been a member for about 40 years. He was also a special constable for 30 years.

Mr Bowles has been a school manager at Woodbury Primary School and was a founder member of the Woodbury and District Youth

Farmers' Club.

Beef, sheep and cereals — Mr Bowles has had experience of them all, and he can recall getting up every two or three hours in the night to check on his sheep during the lambing season.

A sale held by Husseys of Exeter at Woodmanton last week drew a large crowd and Mr Bowles said it was good to renew some old acquaintances.

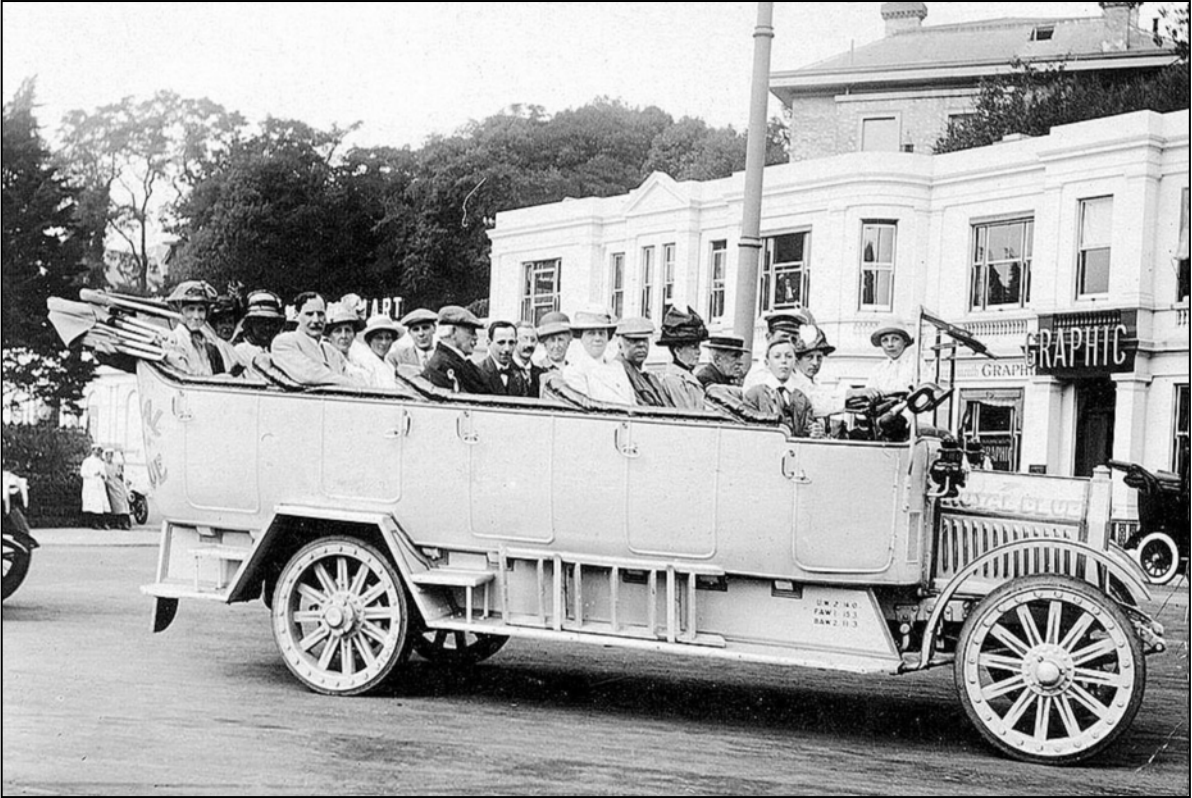

Even the family peacock sold — for £32 — and a top price of £625 was fetched for store cattle.

Sheep couples made £76 and among the farm equipment a K registration Ford 3000 tractor made £1,225, an old farm wagon £130 and a New Holland "276" Baler £425.

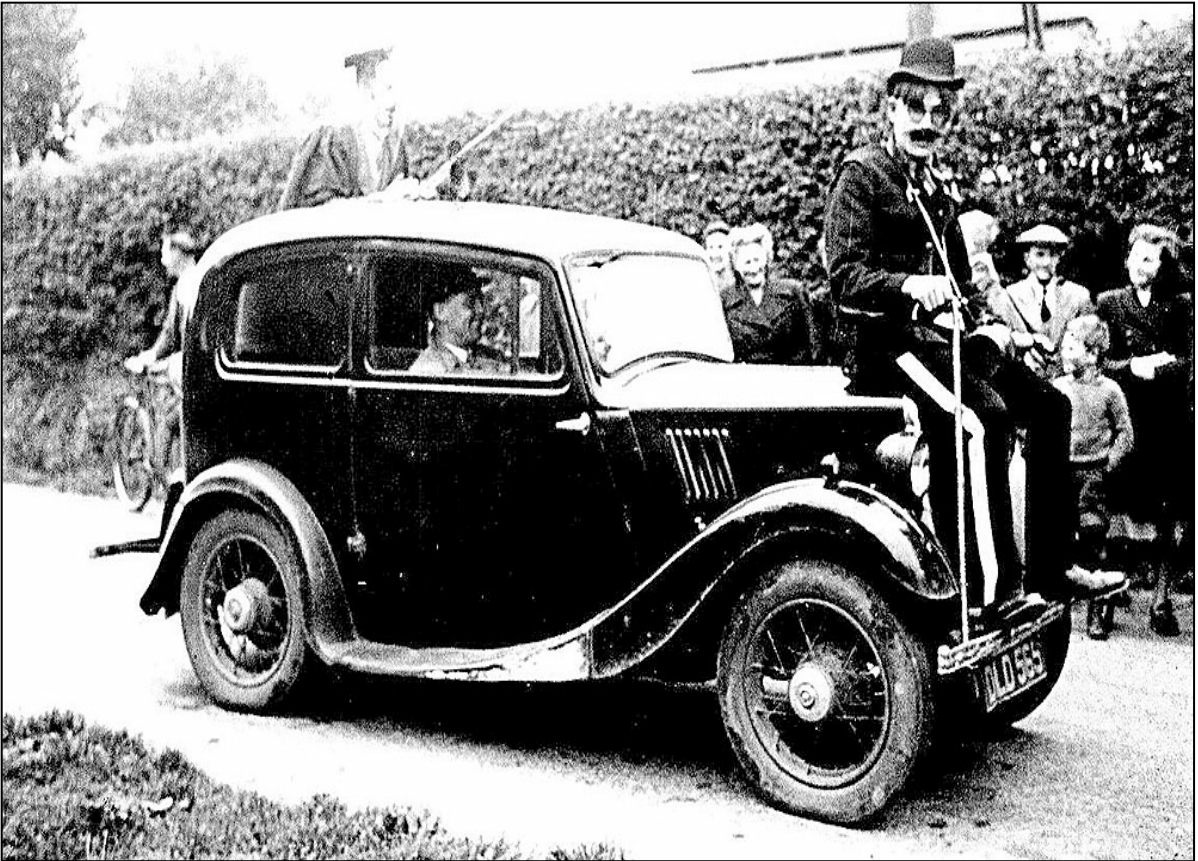

Norman Bowles farm sale

Off to India 1914 a

WI outing 1915

Norman Bowles during a carnival

Old Folks party c.1960

Old Folks party c.1960

Old Folks party c.1960

Believed to be WI play c.1930's 1

Believed to be WI play c.1930's 2

Believed to be WI play c.1930's 3

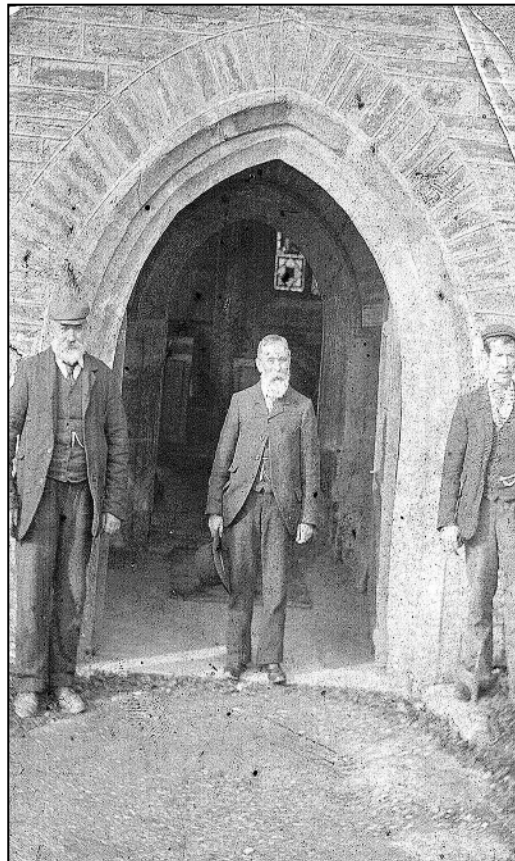

Believed to be WI play c.1930's 4

Believed to be WI play c.1930's 5

Believed to be WI play c.1930's 6

Harry Stokes the 1st the bellhanger, outside a church 1888

The Parish Council 1994

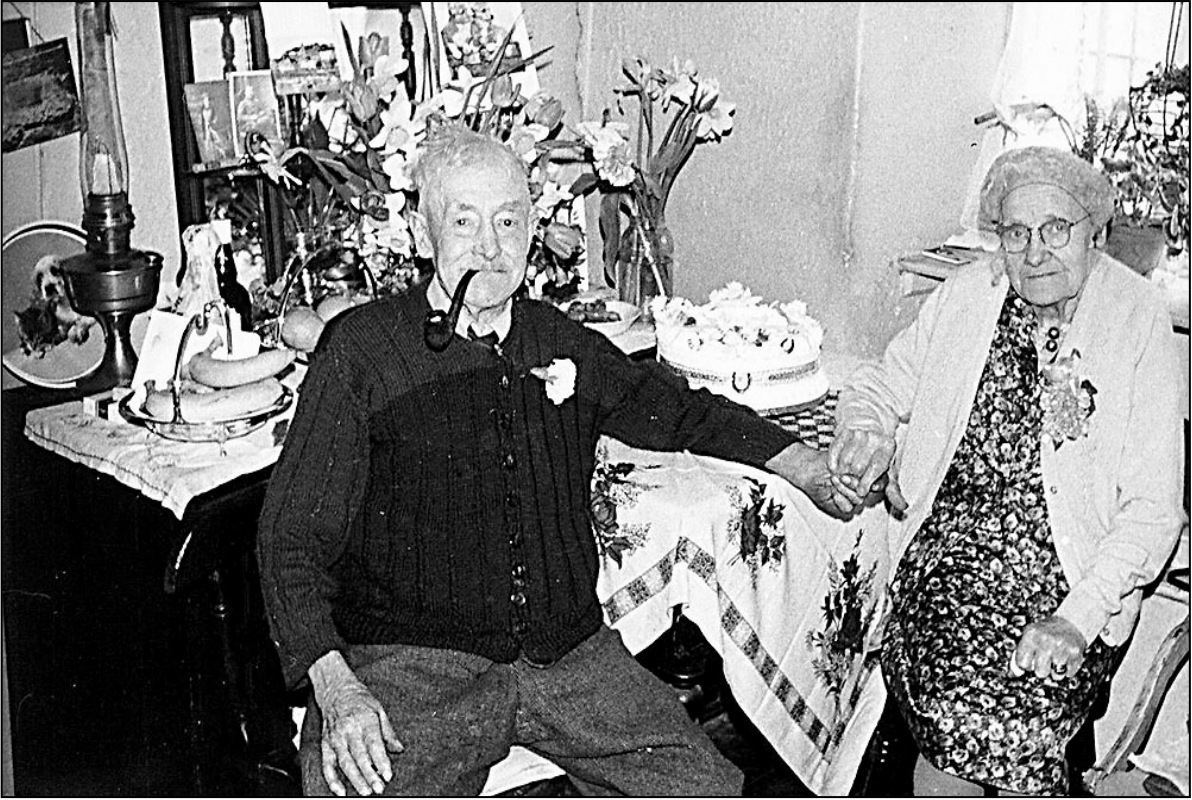

The Parish Council Centenary 1994

Eva Parker aged 96

Parson Fulford on his tricycle 1895

Keeper Pavey at his Diamond Wedding with his wife

Percy and Vera Stedifords wedding 1931

Peter Wright

Pippa Thomson who drew and illustrated the village map for the Centenary 1994

Carnival capers

Sir Henry Pollexfen (c.1632–1691), by Robert White, 1688

Sir Henry Pollexfen 1688

RICHARD AUSTIN

Sally takes a rest from the Diggers

VILLAGE pub the Diggers' Rest has just come to the end of a long and happy chapter in its 500-year history.

Landlady Sally Pratt yesterday bade a final farewell to the place where she has lived since childhood.

"We're closed for the changeover," she said. "And all my belongings - grand-father clocks, whatever, have all gone."

Sally's parents took over the old cider house, in the village of Woodbury Salt-erton, just north of Exmouth, in 1957.

She said: "New owners Steve and Sarah Rushton are very nice and I'm sure the Diggers will be as popular as ever. Real beams, coal fires - it's all here. I've always believed in one thing - never run a cold pub."

Mavis Chudley who, with husband Laurence, has been a regular since 1975, said: "There's always a great atmosphere in the Diggers. Good food, good companionship. And no loud music. We've enjoyed every minute of it - and so has our son. They'll be sorely missed."

● TIME FOR A CHANGE: Happy memories for landlady Sally as she moves on from the historic Diggers' Rest

Sally Pratt retiring from being the landlady for The Diggers Rest 2002

The Prince of Wales driving through Woodbury 1922

The Prince of Wales at the Crossroads 1922

Alice Pyle

Sydney and Olive Pyle

The Pyne family at Postlake cutting oats

Grandad George Pyne at Postlake

Queen Victoria's funeral commemoration service at St Swithuns 1902

Eva Radford's 100th birthday party at the White Hart

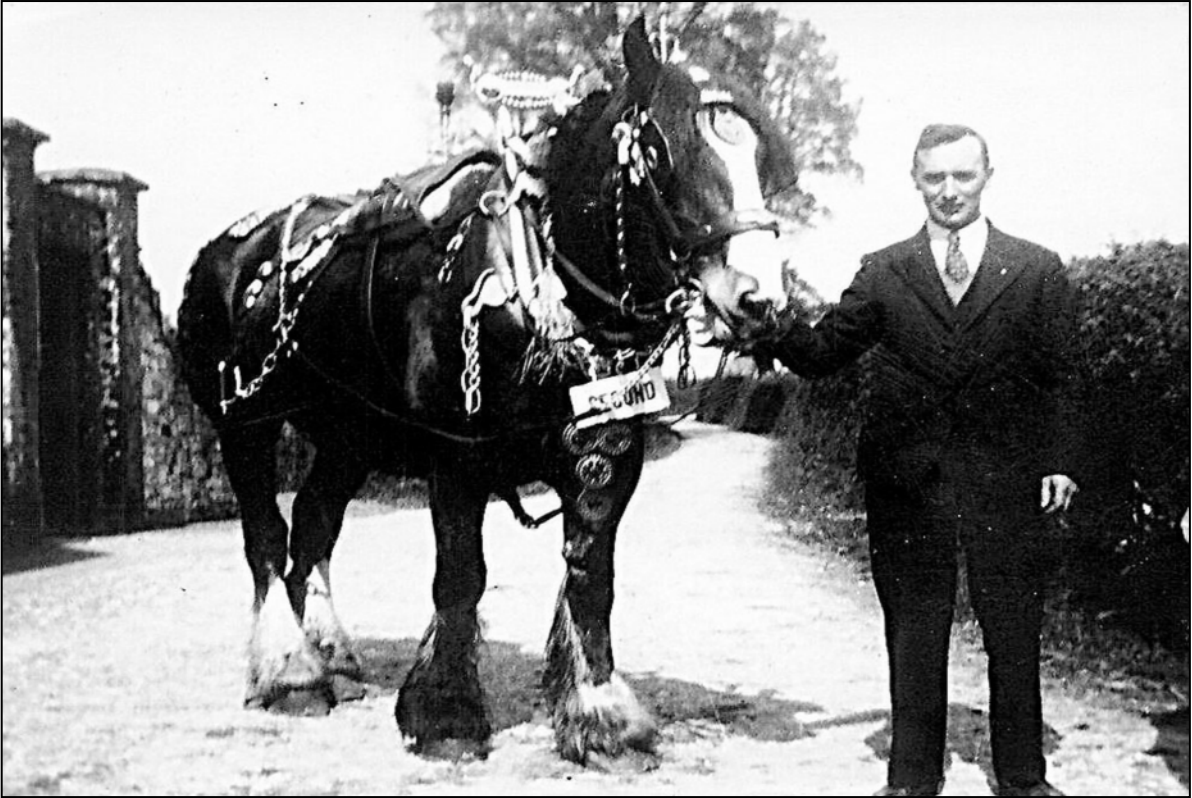

Eva Radford's 100th birthday party at the White Hart

Eva Radfords family c.1910

Radford family parents 1910

Bill Reeves with a Shire horse at Rydon

Ridler family 1

Ridler family 2

Ridler family 3

Ridler family 4

Ridler family 5

Ridler family 6

Mens Cork Club outing on the water

Roger Stokes taking early driving lessons with John Stamp 1942

Roger Stokes at Webbers Farm 1942

The dolphins for Rosemary in Broadway being restored

Tommy Shilston from Clyst St Mary was a regular visitor to Woodbury with his pony and trap